1. Non-Renewable Contract

Any insurance Policy issued will expire after 12 months without tacit renewal. If the Insured wishes the Policy to be renewed then the Insured must advise the Underwriters of all necessary information in good time.

2. Insured's Duty of Disclosure

The Insured has a duty to disclose to the Underwriters, before the contract of insurance is entered into, every matter that is known to the Insured, being a matter that:

- (a) the Insured knows to be a matter relevant to the decision of the Underwriters whether to accept the risk and, if so, on what terms; or
- (b) a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know to be a matter so relevant.

This duty of disclosure also applies to any renewal, extension, variation or reinstatement of the Policy.

The Underwriters are entitled to refuse to cover the additional exposure or charge a reasonable additional premium or, if the nature of the change in circumstances entails a substantially different risk, whether in type or degree, from that previously envisaged, to avoid the contract.

If the person or entity who became the Insured under the Policy upon the contract being entered into:

- (c) failed to comply with the duty of disclosure; or
- (d) made a misrepresentation to the Underwriters before the contract was entered into; (but not where the Underwriters would have entered into the contract, for the same premium and on the same terms and conditions, even if the insured had not failed to comply with the duty of disclosure or had not made the misrepresentation before the contract was entered into) then
- (e) if the failure was fraudulent or the misrepresentation was made fraudulently, the Underwriters may avoid the contract;
- (f) if the Underwriters are not entitled to avoid the contract or, being entitled to avoid the contract have not done so, the liability of the Underwriters in respect of a claim is reduced to the amount that would place the Underwriters in a position in which the Underwriters would have been if the failure had not occurred or the misrepresentation had not been made.

The Insured shall throughout the Period of Insurance give notice as soon as reasonably practicable of any material change in any fact, activity or circumstance as described in the Proposal.

1. Operative Clause

Whereas the Insured stated in the Schedule has made to the Underwriters a Proposal, whose particulars and statements, including any ancillary information provided therewith, are hereby agreed to be the basis of this Policy.

We, the Underwriters, in consideration of payment of the Premium stated in the Schedule, agree, subject to all the terms and provisions of this Policy, to indemnify the Insured as is set out in each insured Coverage Section of this Policy in respect of the Insured's Business as stated in the Schedule but not in respect of any liability of the Insured where the action is brought in a court of law in or any judgment, award, payment, settlement or proceedings are made within territories which operate under the laws of the United States of America or where any order or proceedings are made anywhere in the world to enforce such judgment, award, payment or settlement either in whole or in part unless the Insured has requested that there shall be no such limitation in respect of any or all Coverage Sections of this Policy and has accepted the terms of the United States of America Jurisdiction Extension Clause which forms part of this Policy.

2. Definitions

For the purpose of determining the indemnity granted, the following terms shall be deemed to have the same meaning as defined wherever used in this Policy.

2.1 Proposal

"Proposal" shall mean a written proposal or proposals made by or on behalf of the Insured to the Underwriters for the insurance evidenced by this Policy or any Coverage Section thereof, including any statements, declarations, warranties or information upon which the Underwriters have relied and, where a special form or presentation has been used for the purpose, bearing the date stated in Item of the Schedule. The Proposal shall be construed as incorporated into and forming part of the Policy or relevant Coverage Section or Sections.

2.2 Defence Costs

"Defence Costs" shall mean reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the Insured with Underwriters' prior consent in the investigation, defence or settlement of any claim made or which might be made against the Insured, including

1. the investigation of any circumstances of which the Insured shall become aware which might reasonably be expected to give rise to a claim being made against the Insured or
2. representation at any inquest, inquiry or other proceedings in respect of matters which have a direct relevance to such claim, providing such claims are indemnifiable under this Policy.

2.3 Injury

"Injury" shall mean death, bodily injury, illness or disease of or to any person;

2.3.1 Expanded definition of injury (endorsement)

"Assault and battery committed for the purpose of protecting persons and/or property."

2.4 Damage

"Damage" shall mean loss of possession or control of or actual damage to tangible property;

2.5 Pollution

"Pollution" shall mean any pollution or contamination of the atmosphere or of any water, land or other tangible property;

3. Application to the Period of Insurance

This Policy shall only apply where the Claim Trigger for each Coverage Section as stated in Item of the Schedule falls within the Period of Insurance stated in Item of the said Schedule.

4. Claims Made Provisions

The following provisions are applicable only to Coverage Section(s) where the Claim Trigger is stated in Item of the Schedule to be on a "claims made basis".

4.1 Notification Extension Clause

Should the Insured notify the Underwriters during the Period of Insurance in accordance with General Condition of any specific act, error, omission, circumstances or event which might reasonably be expected to give rise to a claim or claims which form the subject of indemnity by this Policy, then acceptance of such notification by the Underwriters means that Underwriters will deal with such claim or claims as if they had first been made against the Insured during the Period of Insurance.

4.2 Retroactive Exclusion Clause

Underwriters shall not be liable to indemnify the Insured as a result of any claim or claims arising directly or indirectly out of any act, error, omission, circumstances or event occurring or committed or alleged to have been committed before the Retroactive Date stated in Item of the Schedule, but this exclusion shall not apply to any Coverage Section where no date has been inserted.

4.3 Circumstances Known at Inception

Underwriters shall not be liable to indemnify the Insured against any claim or claims arising directly or indirectly out of any circumstance which could give rise to a claim under this Policy of which the Insured were aware or ought reasonably to have been aware at or prior to the inception date of this Policy stated in Item of the Schedule, whether notified under any other insurance or not.

5. Limit of Liability

5.1 The Underwriters' liability to indemnify the Insured in respect of any damages, claimants' costs, fees and expenses or other expenses for each claim under this Policy or series of such claims arising out of one originating cause or occurrence shall not exceed the amount stated in Item of the Schedule as the Occurrence/Claim Limit in respect of each Coverage Section. This limit shall apply regardless of the number of Insureds, additional Insureds or entities comprising the Insured or the number of claims or claimants or any other reason whatsoever.

5.2 Where an amount has been inserted in Item of the Schedule as the Aggregate Limit, this amount represents Underwriters' total liability in respect of all such claims in respect of the relevant Coverage Section.

5.3 Where a combined Occurrence/Claim Limit is stated in the Schedule to apply to certain Coverage Sections, each such Coverage Section shall be subject to its own Limit of Liability, provided always that should the same originating cause or occurrence give rise to indemnity by more than one such Coverage Section, the total amount of Underwriters' liability for all claims arising out of one originating cause or occurrence under all such Coverage Sections combined shall not exceed the single greatest Limit of Liability available under the Coverage Sections providing indemnity.

5.4 Where a combined Aggregate Limit is stated in the Schedule to apply to certain Coverage Sections, each such Coverage Section shall be subject to its own Aggregate Limit provided always that Underwriters' total liability for all claims under all such Coverage Sections combined shall not exceed the single greatest Aggregate Limit available under the Coverage Sections providing indemnity.

6. Defence Costs

6.1 Defence Costs will be paid by the Underwriters as stated in Item of the Schedule in respect of each Coverage Section.

6.2 Where Defence Costs are stated as being payable in addition to the Limit of Liability, the Underwriters will pay associated Defence Costs in addition to the Limit of Liability provided that if the total amount required to dispose of any claim or series of claims arising out of one event exceeds the Limit of Liability then the Underwriters will at the maximum pay such proportion of the total associated Defence Costs as the amount of the indemnity available under this Policy bears to the total amount required to dispose of the claim.

6.3 Where Defence Costs are stated as being inclusive within the Limit of Liability, the Underwriters will pay associated Defence Costs provided always that their total liability under this Policy, including Defence Costs, shall not exceed the Limit of Liability applicable to any claim or series of claims arising out of one originating cause or occurrence.

The Insured shall at all times give Underwriters such information and co-operation as Underwriters may reasonably require.

8.4 Subrogation

Underwriters shall become subrogated to all rights of recourse and remedies of the Insured, before as well as after any payment by Underwriters to the extent of such payment and the Insured shall take all reasonable steps to preserve such rights and remedies.

Notwithstanding the above, if any payment is made or may be made under this Policy and Underwriters are thereupon subrogated to the Insured's rights of recovery in relation thereto, Underwriters agree not to exercise any such rights against any director or employee of the Insured unless the claim is brought about or contributed to by the dishonest, fraudulent, criminal or malicious act or omission of the director or employee.

The Insured shall give all such assistance in the exercise of rights of recovery as Underwriters may reasonably require.

8.5 Material Information

The Insured has a duty to disclose to the Underwriters, before this contract of insurance is entered into, every matter that is known to the Insured, being a matter that:

- (a) the Insured knows to be a matter relevant to the decision of the Underwriters whether to accept the risk and, if so, on what terms; or
- (b) a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know to be a matter so relevant.

This duty of disclosure also applies to any renewal, extension, variation or reinstatement of this Policy.

The Underwriters are entitled to refuse to cover the additional exposure or charge a reasonable additional premium or, if the nature of the change in circumstances entails a substantially different risk, whether in type or degree, from that previously envisaged, to avoid the contract.

If the person or entity who became the Insured under this Policy upon the contract being entered into:

- (c) failed to comply with the duty of disclosure; or
- (d) made a misrepresentation to the Underwriters before the contract was entered into; (but not where the Underwriters would have entered into the contract, for the same premium and on the same terms and conditions, even if the insured had not failed to comply with the duty of disclosure or had not made the misrepresentation before the contract was entered into) then
- (e) if the failure was fraudulent or the misrepresentation was made fraudulently, the Underwriters may avoid the contract.
- (f) if the Underwriters are not entitled to avoid the contract or, being entitled to avoid the contract have not done so, the liability of the Underwriters in respect of a claim is reduced to the amount that would place the Underwriters in a position in which the Underwriters would have been if the failure had not occurred or the misrepresentation had not been made.

The Insured shall throughout the Period of Insurance give notice as soon as reasonably practicable of any material change in any fact, activity or circumstance as described in the Proposal.

8.6 Adjustment of Premiums

If the Premium for this Policy has been calculated on any estimates furnished by the Insured, the Insured shall keep an accurate record containing all relevant particulars and shall at all times allow Underwriters or their duly appointed representative to inspect such records. The Insured shall within one month from expiry of the Period of Insurance furnish such particulars and information as Underwriters may require. The premium for such period shall then be adjusted and the difference paid by or returned to the Insured, provided that the premium for any Period of Insurance shall not be less than any Minimum Premium stated in the Schedule or pro rata thereof if the Policy is cancelled before its normal expiry date.

8.7 Relinquishment

The Underwriters may at any time pay to the Insured in connection with any claim or series of claims under this Policy the amount of the Limit of Liability remaining under this Policy or any lesser amount for which such claim or claims can be settled less any sums already paid and, where Defence Costs are inclusive within the Limit of Liability, less any associated Defence Costs already paid. Upon such payment being made, the Underwriters shall relinquish the conduct and control of and be under no further liability in connection with such claims or associated Defence Costs incurred after the date of such relinquishment.

However if Underwriters exercise the above option and the total amount required to dispose of any claim or series of claims exceeds the Limit of Liability and Defence Costs are payable in addition to the Limit of Liability under this Policy then the Underwriters will pay their proportion of Defence Costs incurred up to the date of relinquishment in such proportion as the amount of the indemnity available under this Policy bears to the total amount which in the opinion of the Underwriters at the time of relinquishment will be necessary to dispose of the claim.

8.8 Dispute

This Policy shall be governed by Australian Law unless stated to the contrary. If any dispute arises in connection with the formulation, validity or interpretation of this Policy, then such dispute shall be submitted to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction within Australia. Both parties agree to comply with all requirements necessary to give such court jurisdiction.

8.9 Cancellation

This Policy or any Coverage Section thereof may be cancelled by or on behalf of Underwriters if the Insured fails to comply with the duty of utmost good faith or the duty of disclosure or makes a misrepresentation before the contract was entered into or makes a fraudulent claim or otherwise fails to comply with any provision of this Policy. The cancellation shall be effective on the third working day after the day on which written notice was given to the Insured or as specified in the Insurance Contracts Act 1984. Premium shall then be adjusted in accordance with the Adjustment of Premiums Condition, if applicable, and calculated on the basis of Underwriters receiving or retaining pro rata premium.

Notice shall be deemed to be duly received if sent by pre-paid letter post properly addressed to the Insured's or the Insured's broker's last known address.

8.10 Fraud

If any claim under this Policy or any Coverage Section thereof is in any respect fraudulent, the Underwriters shall be under no liability in respect of such claim.

8.11 Contribution

Where any liability covered under this Policy is also covered by another policy or policies, the Insured shall be entitled to make a claim against this Policy or any of such policies provided that the Underwriters hereunder are not prejudiced in their ability to recover contribution from the insurers of any other such policies and provided the Insured shall not be entitled to recover more than the applicable Limit of Liability under this Policy or the relevant Coverage Section nor to recover an amount that exceeds or amounts that in the aggregate exceed the amount of the liability.

25. TERRORISM EXCLUSION ENDORSEMENT

(for use with Liability/Casualty business)

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary within this insurance or any endorsement thereto it is agreed that this insurance excludes liability for loss, injury, damage, cost or expense of whatsoever nature directly or indirectly caused by, resulting from or in connection with any act of terrorism regardless of any other cause or event contributing concurrently or in any other sequence to the loss.

For the purpose of this endorsement an act of terrorism means an act, including but not limited to the use of force or violence and/or the threat thereof, of any person or group(s) of persons, whether acting alone or on behalf of or in connection with any organisation(s) or government(s), committed for political, religious, ideological or similar purposes including the intention to influence any government and/or to put the public, or any section of the public, in fear.

This endorsement also excludes loss, injury, damage, cost or expense of whatsoever nature directly or indirectly caused by, resulting from or in connection with any action taken in controlling, preventing, suppressing or in any way relating to any act of terrorism.

If the Underwriters allege that by reason of this exclusion, any loss, injury, damage, cost or expense is not covered by this insurance the burden of proving the contrary shall be upon the Assured.

In the event any portion of this endorsement is found to be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder shall remain in full force and effect.

14/07/2002 NMA2951

Australia Terrorism Insurance Act 2003 Notice

The Underwriters have treated this Insurance (or part of it) as an Insurance to which the Australia Terrorism Insurance Act 2003 (ATIA) applies.

ATIA and the supporting regulations made under the Act deem cover into certain policies and provide that the Terrorism exclusion to which this Insurance is subject shall not apply to any "eligible terrorism loss" as defined in ATIA.

Any coverage established by ATIA is only in respect of any "eligible terrorism loss" resulting from a "terrorist act" which is a "declared terrorist incident" as defined in ATIA. The Terrorism exclusion to which this Insurance is subject applies in full force and effect to any other loss and any act or event that is not a "declared terrorist incident".

All other terms, conditions, insured coverage and exclusions of this Insurance including applicable limits and deductibles remain unchanged.

If any or all of the Underwriters have reinsured this Insurance with the Australian Reinsurance Pool Corporation, then such Underwriters will not be liable for any amounts for which they are not responsible under the terms of ATIA due to the application of a "reduction percentage" as defined in ATIA which results in a cap on the Underwriter's liability for payment for "eligible terrorism losses".

NMA2984

In the event that a dispute arises between Underwriters and the Insured/Reinsured out of or otherwise in relation to this agreement, then:

- (a) Any party to the dispute shall, without prejudice to any other right or entitlement they may have, give written notice to the other party (the "Dispute Notice") requiring them within 7 days of this notice to negotiate (whether in a face to face meeting or by teleconference) in good faith as to how the dispute can be resolved;
- (b) If a dispute is not resolved within 10 days of the Dispute Notice, either party can request the other party within a further 10 days to agree on either:
  1. a process for resolving the dispute through means other than litigation or arbitration, such as further negotiation, mediation, or any other alternative dispute resolution technique. The rules governing any such technique shall be agreed as between the parties and where no such agreement as to the process and or guidelines is reached within 10 days, then it shall be by mediation by a mediator selected by the Chairperson for the time being of Lawyers Engaged in Alternative Dispute Resolution (LEADR) (or other appropriate professional body as agreed by the parties); or
  2. referral of the matters in dispute to an independent expert for an expert determination. The parties agree that they will not be bound by the determination of the expert. The expert:
    - (a) will be a person agreed between the parties within 10 days of the dispute being referred to expert determination or failing this, the expert will be a person appointed by the Australian Insurance Law Institute (or other appropriate professional body as agreed by the parties);
    - (b) will act as an expert and not as an arbitrator;
    - (c) will proceed in such a manner as he or she thinks fit without being bound to observe the rules of natural justice or the rules of evidence;
    - (d) will take into consideration all documents, information and other written and oral material that the parties place before him or her including documents, information and material relating to the facts in dispute and to arguments and submissions upon the matters in dispute; and
    - (e) will act with expedition to provide the parties with a determination in writing within 35 days of the referral to him or her of the matters in dispute.

Both parties must use their best endeavours to achieve resolution by the selected process and further agree that neither party will initiate litigation (as set out in clause (c) below) without first pursuing such informal resolution techniques in good faith;

In the event that the dispute is not resolved by such informal process within 35 days of the Dispute Notice (or such other period as agreed in writing between the parties) the dispute shall be referred to litigation.

- (c) Following either a mediation or an expert determination pursuant to clause (b) of this provision, either party may then initiate proceedings in any competent Court in the Commonwealth of Australia in relation to the matters in dispute.

Such proceedings may only be commenced on 14 days written notice to the other party and shall be determined in accordance with the law and practice applicable in such Court.

Any summons, notice or process to be served upon Underwriters may be served upon:

Lloyd's Underwriters' General Representative in Australia
Suite 2, Level 21
Angel Place
123 Pitt Street
Sydney
NSW 2000
Australia

who has authority to accept service and to appear on Underwriters' behalf.

If proceedings are instituted against any one of the Underwriters, all Underwriters participating in this insurance will abide by the final decision of such Court or any competent Appellate Court.

- (d) Except where the dispute renders it impossible to do so, the parties will continue performing their respective obligations under the Policy while the dispute is being resolved, unless and until such obligations are terminated or expire in accordance with this agreement.
- (e) Each party must use its reasonable endeavours to ensure that where a dispute is reasonably foreseeable, it is dealt with at a sufficiently early stage to ensure that there is a minimal effect on the ability of either party to perform its obligations under the Policy.
- (f) Notwithstanding anything in this schedule, either party may at any time commence Court proceedings in relation to any dispute or claim arising under, or in connection with the Policy where the party seeks urgent interlocutory relief.
